Bogs There are plenty of owners of abundsince of money now lying unemployed inferior in market. who would be glad of opportunity to tise it, but where is the opportunity? Thousands of farmers and manufacturers would make large gains the coming year if they had money to carry on their operations, but they cannot get it, because so much of former advances remain unliquidated that there is no safety in making new ones. Thus, we not only capital lying but wealth that would be created is lost to the nation. The wealth thus lost leaves a certain number of individuals permanently poor, that would have been comfortably rich, and thus the mass of the poor is increased, when, y the increase of productions and manufactured articles, the number of the poor ought relatively to decrease. Exchange is still in moderate offering, but bere is abundance in prospect; rates are firm at the usual quotations, ic discount on the east and north, selling at ic pre-mium; ic discount on New Orleans. elling at par. was lively owing to arrivals by river favorable character. Corn was the principal sriicle offering, and a decline, as was to be expected, was established. The greater part of what came in went at 840, but most of it had been sold before "lo arrive;" 85c was the general price for what was sold on the spot. Oats showed no new feature and were limited to sales on orders at 72c. Bran has almost ceased to be in demand owing to its high price. Hay was quiet, little doing except some prairie at $18.

Ear corn sold at 83c. Cornmeal changed hands actively at $4. Flour is quiet, except that low grades remain wanted. and scarce. The St. Louis Republican, of Tuesday, says: "Flour, in general features of the market, was unchanged. There captiones a fair demand for low and medium grades—say from $4 50 down, and for spring. When the river shall open there will be renewed movement and perhaps some advance in prices on such grades as are wanted in the South, but no important advance is really anticipated when that event occurs. Cornmeal is unchanged; sale 250 bbls city at $3 40@ 3 50 delivered." Potatoes are very active in the seed varieties; some grades have become scarce and have risen ac-cordingly, we heard $4 seted for pinkeyes, one of the almost exhausted sorts; owing to the warm weather and expocted receipts lower rates at an early day are expected; few early rose to be found. Apples were scarce at former prices. Eggs were lower but unsettled, 250 was the prevalent price. Lime is selling at $80 a car load in bulk. dropped a couple of oxen overboard, one of which was recovered by the mate of the Parker, and the other by a stranger. Seventeen men and a cross-eyed boy have applied to Captain Bob Wise for pay for the recovery of the aforesaid ox. Every port along the river between here and Evansville, furnished a claimant for salvage on that brute, until Wise has concluded it were far better he had not been recovered at all. Yesterday, while in port here, another claimant turned up, alleging that he saved both the beasts, and threatening to "tie up" the boat if ten dollars were not paid. Bob let down his back hair at him, tendered him the usual amount he has been paying on the one ox, and offered the claimant the choice between accepting the five dollars or going ashore the near way. Mr. Claimant No. 18, seeing an expression of earnestness in the old sea-dog's countenance, pocketed the five dollars and went ashore in a hurry. COMMENDATORY—"Having from our long acquaintance with J. E. Foster, every confidence in his integrity, we feel justified in saying we believe he will carry out his Distribution honceity and fairly." Signed by the Mayor, Hon. J. T. D. Wilson, and the City Council.

That old and reliable paper, the Houston Telegraph, which rarely condescends to notice individual enterprises, says of the First Drawing: "Not even the most capilous and suspecting person could take exceptions to the manner of the drawing. It was fair, honorable and eqitable, The committee and recorders were of our very best citizens, and kindly gave their time and labor to the superintendence of the drawing, or rather sid the actual labor of it. Captain Foster has acted honorably and fairly throughout the whole management of this enterprise. While some money has been made by the venture in all probability, yet the property given as prizes has only netted a fair price, and the profit is only an exchange for the continuous continuous this enterprise. While some money has been made by the venture in all probability, yet the property given as prizes has only netted a fair price, and the profit is only an exchange of the property for cash."

That stauen Democratic paper, the Houston Age, has the following:

"The Committee of gentlemen was one of the best that could have been selected by the audience. Hon, D. U. Barziza, who supervised the drawing, is our present representative, and one of the most popular men in the district. The drawing was prefaced by an explanation from Captain Foster, of the mode adopted. This was well received and understood, precisely as explained by the circulars. Captain Foster said that while he wished all his home people good luck, he yet was free to say that with the people of poor Mississippi, Louisana and South Carolina, he felt a greater sympathy, and he did hope they would draw the largest number of prizes, that they might come to a free country, and make a white man's living. This sentiment was received with loud cheers. The drawing was then proceeded with, and the result is announced eisewhere."
